

SCUM Meeting Minutes

January 4, 2010

Meeting was brought to order by Peter Vanderbilt. Two visitors were acknowledged and December minutes were accepted.

2010 dues of $15 were accepted from a number of members. Please note that a membership includes a spouse at no extra charge.

Dan made some announcements. He found two broken links on the website and they were repaired. The number of hits on the website are up.

Art Steffes fell in at his home on December 17th (his 74th birthday) and broke his femur and fractured his hip. He will be unavailable for his regular help sessions in the Mac Lab on Wednesdays at 11:00 a.m. for some time. A number of members have volunteered to fill in until he returns. The slate of officers for 2010 are as follows:

- Co-chairs Geoff Fernald and Peter Vanderbilt
- Secretary Fred Offenbach
- Treasurer Jack Fisher
- Apple Ambassador Dan Bellack (Appointed Position)

Pete Vanderbilt made an excellent presentation on the I-phone.

- The i-phone replaces many other devices
- It has a touch screen
- High resolution
- It can run over 100,000 different apps
- Disadvantages: cost is from $100 to $300
  - $40-90 fee per month for a minimum of 24 months
  - One app at a time
- There are some competitors

SCUM 411 - When cleaning out iPhoto 1/2 will trash, 1/2 will not delete

Delete within the application. Information can be found by a Google search.

Respectfully submitted,
Betty Torrez, Secretary
